*F*or twenty changing college generations the Chapel has stood in lofty nobility—the unchanging symbol to Mississippi College men of all time for that which is truest and finest on the campus surrounding it.

The members of the Student Body Association of Mississippi College at Clinton, Mississippi publish in this thirty-first volume of their annual record the campus activities of their Alma Mater's one-hundred-eleventh year of leadership in promoting Christian education and culture.

WE HONOR

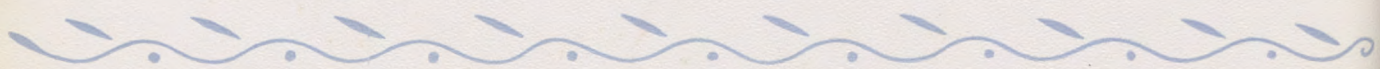

*That genial and quiet man among us who through his broad learning and scholarly attainments, his constructive interest in student affairs, and his gracious personality has elicited admiration from his professional associates and warmest esteem from his students,
Dr. Walter Fuller Taylor*

FOREWORD

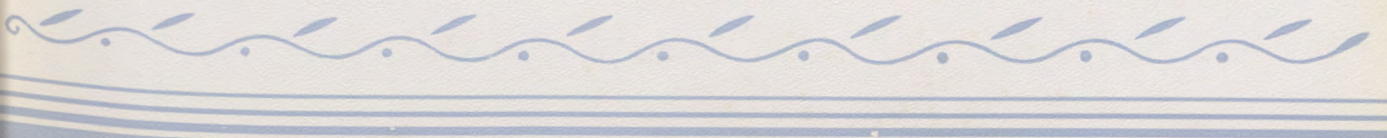

If, as the years fleet on and the memory dims, your "Tribesman" may recall to you in its pictures and stories somewhat of your college experience—your school work, your friendships and loves, your honors, your professors, or your sports—the purpose of this book will happily have been realized.

*Hereinafter follow five chapters of student life at Mississippi College and Hillman College: Academic, Hillman,
Athletics, Features and Organizations*

The President

Dr. D. M. Nelson is justly respected by Mississippi College men for his efficiency in managing the administrative functions of his office. Far greater, however, is their admiration for the manner in which he is guiding the progress of Mississippi College according to the school's traditional ideals for "Truth and Virtue"

The Fresh- men

The Faculty

We interrupt a bull session between Dr. Bratcher and Prof. Cranfill • Dr. Lowrey goes back to Hillman • Toar and Bull give Schmaltsy recipes for growing up • Miss Addie Mae plots a course across the street • Tite patiently waiting for the library to open • Miss Bennett is a coy soul • The absorbing sight was a co-ed • Dutchy munches an apple and watches a fencing match • "Doctor" Luke in an informal pose • Dr. Wood tells them all about it • Perhaps he is ruminating on his bachelorhood • Mrs. Hitt often worries about Coach Dick's passing abilities • The "Dean" sallies toward Chrestman.

Cupid's Chillun

Charlie is proud of his Ruby collection

• Business Manager Morris does a little campus advertising • Paul and Norma also go to day school • Dunnaway gets off to another nice gain • The last Hitt run was a homer • Earl always was a forward fellow • Ben Seitz and Irma Reedy do things when they go places • Blackie and Lynn take a walk when the car is too crowded • Jimmy Dunagin and Cascille Middleton caught off their guard • Jamie is taken for a ride in his own car • L. G. White and Grace Middleton on the library steps, but the engagement ring doesn't show •

Betty Co-Ed has no scruples.

CHOCTAWS on

For the first game of the season, the Choctaws went to LaFayette, La., for a game with Southwestern on Sept. 25. There was no score until the Choctaws broke the ice in the third period to lead by 7-6. They ran the margin up to thirteen points, only to see the Bulldogs tie the score as a result of Choctaw fumbles. The game ended in a 13-13 tie.

The Choctaws next met the Chattanooga Moccasins in Chattanooga on the night of October 2. The Moccasins scored early in the first period, only to see James Hitt intercept a pass on the Moccasin fifteen-yard line and race the rest of the field to place the score at 7-6 in favor of the Moccasins. The two teams surged back and forth with no advantage, and the game ended 7-6.

Spring Hill's Badgers came to Jackson for the first home game of the Choctaws. The Choctaws were lax in the first half and let the Badgers take a 7-0 lead. Led by James and Joel Hitt,

JAMES HITT

Co-Captain Halfback

All-American Merit, halfback of All-Dixie Team, and a great player.

HASKELL JACKSON

Tackle

A rugged, hard-charging tackle with unusual stamina and aggressiveness.

the Choctaws swept through their opponents for four scores in the last half to win, 28-7.

At Murray, Ky., the Choctaws reached their highest peak of the season. The powerful Thoroughbreds opened the game with an uninterrupted drive for a touchdown. The Choctaws came back to score three times in as many quarters. The game ended in a victory for the Choctaws, 20-14.

The Choctaw-Major clash, the first of a series of two, played before a large Fair crowd, ended in disappointment for the Choctaw supporters. The Choctaws knocked at the Major goal many times, but each advance was repulsed. The game wore on until the last quarter, when, like a flash, an alert Major snatched a Choctaw pass and raced for a touchdown. The Choctaws made nine first downs to the Majors' one, but lost the game, 7-0.

CHOCTAWS on

October 30th was the testing day for the Choctaws as to whether the demoralizing defeat at the hands of the Majors would make or break the team. The rejuvenated Delta State Green Wave provided the opposition in the only game of the season to be played on Provine field. The first half ended scoreless, with neither team holding an advantage. The break came in the third quarter when Joel Hitt raced 73 yards for a touchdown.

After that the Chocs dominated the Greenie eleven and rolled up two more touchdowns for a 20-0 victory, with the Hitt brothers stepping off the yardage.

Into the hills of Arkansas for a game with the Ouachita Tigers at Arkadelphia went the Choctaws the following week. The Indians marched down the field for a touchdown without losing the ball, but later on in the game weakened to let the inspired Tigers romp to a 31-13 victory.

the GRIDIRON

DICK EDMONSON
Quarterback

A masterful field general, and an invaluable asset to the Choctaw team.

JOEL HITT
Halfback

An accurate passer, a good punter, and a hard runner.

FRED GREEN
End

A good pass receiver and a consistent player.

BOBBY JACKSON
End

Good as a leader, a pass receiver, and a good all-round player.

MERVIN DUNAWAY
Halfback

An excellent place-kicker and a good defensive man, Red was valuable.

The flying Petrels of Oglethorpe University came to Jackson for a clash with the Chocs the next Saturday. The Choctaws intercepted a lateral to lead, 7-0, at the half, and marched to three more in the second half, winning 26-0.

With almost two weeks until the second meeting with Millsaps, the Choctaws started to work determined on gaining revenge. Each day the Indians drilled with solemn determination, with no one venturing a prediction as to how the game would come out. On Thanksgiving Day, the game with Millsaps began, with both teams playing cautiously. Soon Fred Greene scored on a bullet pass from Joel Hitt. Then Red Dunaway intercepted a Major pass and raced through the purple team for a second Choc score. Frank Blackwell rushed a Millsaps kicker, who fumbled behind his own goal line, allowing Frank to cover the ball for a third score. Completely routed in the first half, the Majors came back in the second half to score on a pass. However, the Choctaws defeated them, 19-7.

CHOCTAWS on

Dick Hitt took over the coaching reins of the Choctaw basketball team for his first year and led it through a rather unsuccessful season so far as winning games is concerned; but he finally found the right combination to end the season with a blaze of glory by winning the Dixie Conference championship.

The Choctaws opened the season by being defeated by Mississippi State at Starkville, 36-25, and also by Illinois College at Clinton, 39-29.

Immediately after the holidays the Tribe took a trip into the north-central states where they won few games but earned some valuable experience. The Choctaws opened the trip by defeating the fast Memphis Y. team, 32-28, then lost to Illinois Normal at Carbondale, 35-32, and won from Illinois College at Jacksonville, 29-25. Sparks College then defeated the Tribe, 45-40, as did the Murray, Kentucky, Thoroughbreds, 42-28. On the last game of the trip the Choctaws lost a close one to Union University, 40-37.

Playing on the home court once more, the Choctaws lost to Louisiana Normal, 38-32, and to Murray Teachers, 33-30. On a trip through Louisiana Loyola defeated the Tribe, 44-40; but the Indians were finally able to turn the tables and win from Southwestern Louisiana, 28-25. Then they were defeated by Louisiana Normal, 42-40.

Playing a greatly improved game, the Choctaws won from Union University on the campus, 38-35, and routed the Millsaps Majors, 48-26. The Celtics went through the formality of defeating the Tribe in Jackson, 50-38. Then Loyola defeated the locals in a return game, 37-27. The Choctaws ran over the Majors twice in succession, 58-31 and 60-38.

Centennary came to the campus to take away a close victory, 41-37. Mississippi State eked out a 46-42 victory over the Tribe in Jackson, and the Choctaws defeated Mexico City Y.M.C.A. in an international game, 46-27. The Choctaws closed their regular season by defeating the Millsaps Majors for the fourth straight time, 38-20.

Entering the Dixie Conference tournament in Jackson as a dark horse, the Choctaws came through to win. The first victim of the Tribe was Chattanooga University, 30-26, with Howard the second victim, 39-35, in an extra period. The Choctaws defeated Southwestern of Memphis in the finals, 43-35. Joel Hitt, Herman Newsome, Captain Eldon McPhearson, Fred Green, and Clovis Carrol played the entire tournament almost without substitution.

First Base

More than just a good first baseman, and a dangerous hitter. Chosen to serve as captain for the 1937 season.

HUBERT SHEFFIELD

Pitcher

Serving as captain of the team during 1936, "Bull" was a great factor in winning games for the Chocs.

TRUMAN MARLER

Catcher

An improved Sophomore with the ability to handle pitchers as well as being a heavy hitter.

JAMES McCOLLUM

Outfield

Jocko had an uncanny ability for getting hits when runs were needed. A real asset to the team.

Coached by Stanley Robinson and captained by Hubert Sheffield, the 1936 Mississippi College baseball team won nine games and lost seven in intercollegiate competition. They played some of the best of college teams and showed two of the best of college pitchers in Lane and Sheffield and were always dangerous at the plate.

The Indians went to Baton Rouge to play the first two games of the season with the L. S. U. Tigers, losing both games by scores of 11-5 and 6-5.

Minnesota's Big Ten Championship Gophers won two games from the Tribe in Clinton. The score of the first game was 7-2. The Chocs gathered as many hits as the Gophers, but failed to take advantage of them.

Illinois Wesleyan won the first of a two-game series by a score of 9-6 by using a parade of pitchers, but Joe Lane subdued them in the second game, 8-1.

the DIAMOND

Captain Sheffield lost a ten-inning game to Louisiana Tech in Ruston, 11-10, but Joe Lane again pitched a fine game to win, 6-2.

In a slugging match the Choctaws defeated the Delta State Greenies on Provine Field, 11-9.

The Indians scalped the Majors in the first series of the season played in Jackson, with Joe Lane winning the first game, 8-1, and Captain Sheffield pitching the second game as the Tribe hammered out a 15-1 victory.

Jocko McCollum singled in the twelfth with two men out and the bases full to win 9-8 over Birmingham-Southern.

In the second series with Millsaps, played in Clinton, the Tribe again was victorious. Joe Lane pitched the first game for a 11-8 victory, and Sheffield won in a duel, 6-5.

The Choctaws divided the last two games of the season with Louisiana Tech, losing 5-2, with Lane winning the second in a pitchers' duel, 2-1.

FRED GREEN

Pitcher

Besides filling his duties on the mound, Fred was good at third base when needed.

JAMES HITT

Outfield

In addition to being a good fielder, James always came out of the game with several hits.

DICK EDMONSON

Outfield

Dick was always reliable as an outfielder and was exceptionally adept at filling the catcher's post.

JODY LYLE

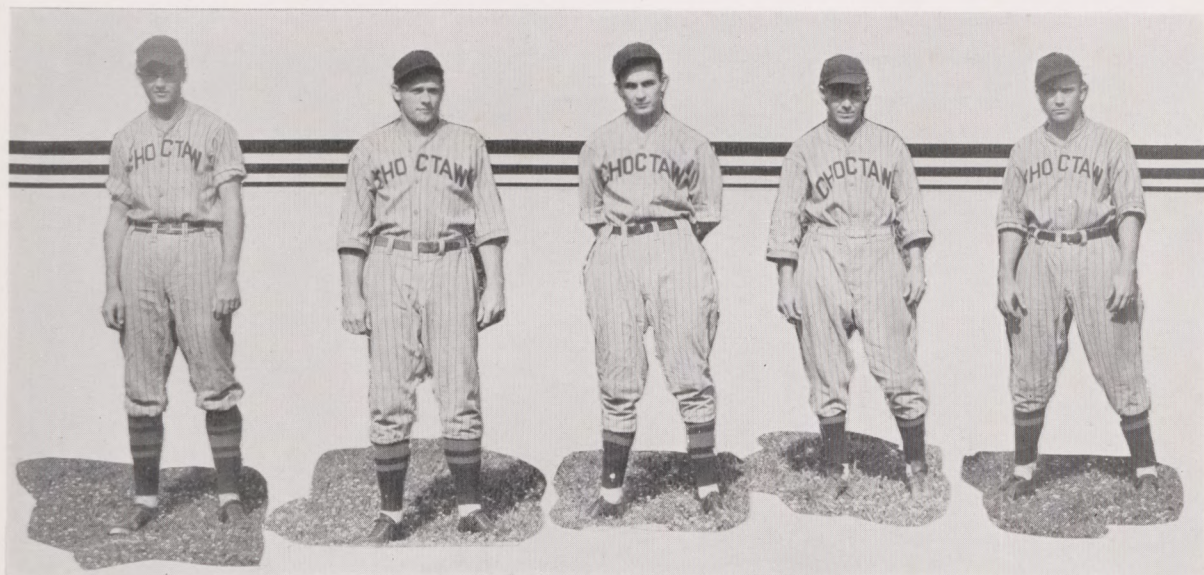

Shortstop

Always good at the plate and a flawless fielder; especially good on throws to first base.

TERRY HOLLOWELL

Second Base

Terry was a competent second baseman and a key man on double plays.

CHOCTAWS on the

The 1936 Chotaw track team did not enjoy such a successful season as far as winning in dual meets is concerned, but suffering from graduations, the team did well. The team lacked sprinters and the weight men were inexperienced.

Joe Ed Taylor, a Sophomore, was good on the mile and half-mile; Troy Mohon, a good pole vaulter, and James Hitt, on the high hurdles, high jump and broad jump, and Arnold Hederman showed promise on the low hurdles.

Birmingham-Southern came to Clinton for the first dual meet of the season on the cinder paths of Provine Field. The Panthers piled up a total of 72 points, while the Indians were not far behind with 48. James Hitt was the high scorer of the day with 15 points. He placed first on the high jump, high hurdles and broad jump. Taylor came in first for the Choctaws on the half mile, and Mohon pole vaulted higher than anyone else for the afternoon. The Mississippi College relay team, composed of Lee, Davis, Winstead, and Mohon, won from the Birmingham-Southern team.

In the second meet of the season the Choctaws journeyed to Pineville, Louisiana, to meet the powerful Louisiana College Wildcats. The Tribe was again defeated, scoring 22 points as against 90 for their opponents. The Choctaws were able to gather only one first place and four second places.

James Hitt again placed first in the broad jump and won two second places. He placed second in the high jump and on the high hurdles. Hederman extended his opponent to come in second on the low hurdles. Taylor won the other second place in the mile run.

A bit travel-weary, the Choctaws traveled to Ruston, La., to meet the Louisiana Tech Bulldogs in the last meet of the season. Although trying valiantly against superior odds, the Redskins were not able to win a first place but the Choctaws never gave up and they were able to capture several second places against the strong Louisiana squad.

The Athletic Council

The Athletic Council is composed of the three coaches, four members of the faculty, and three members of the student body. As its name implies, it is a board created for the purpose of guiding and controlling all phases and policies of athletics at Mississippi College. The Council serves specifically as a medium for the awarding of the varsity "M" and freshman numeral by recommending to the student body those men it deems qualified for recognition and honor. Besides performing this important duty, the Athletic Council stands as an example of the success that may accrue from the harmonious cooperation of both students and faculty members and the more nearly complete understanding that is possible of existing between them.

Composed of men who have won a varsity "M" in football, basketball, baseball, track, or tennis, the managers of these sports, and the senior cheerleader, the "M" Club represents the highest honor that the student body of Mississippi College can confer on its athletes. The club embodies the "Choctaw" ideals of fine sportsmanship, cooperation, and wholesome character-building in its spirit, and in keeping with these ideals, sponsors each year high school basketball tournaments, and the traditional M. C. Minstrel and Stunt Night. But perhaps the greatest single service the "M" Club renders to Mississippi College is the coordinating of the various departments of campus athletics into one unified yet many-sided activity.

CHAPEL

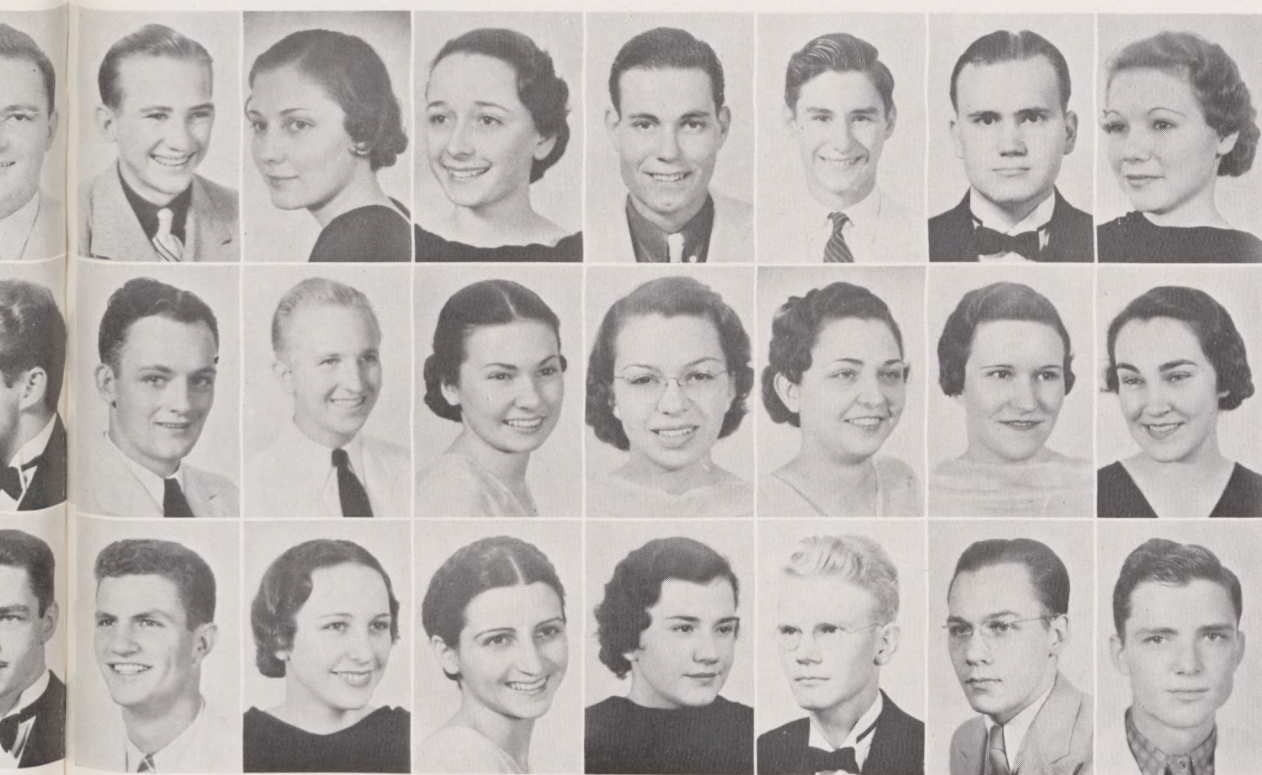

Marking the return of Professor Frank Slater to Mississippi College with the realization of a long-wished-for desire, the Chapel Choir was formed as an entirely new organization. Notwithstanding its newness, the chorus, composed of sixty of the best voices of Mississippi College, Hillman, and Clinton, made such a creditable showing at its public appearance that it seems certain to assume a permanent position on the campus.

Blue Mountain College

An Endowed Senior College for Women

BLUE MOUNTAIN, MISSISSIPPI

A standard "A" grade college, holding membership in the Southern Association of Colleges and the Association of American Colleges.

Located in the high, healthful hill section of northeast Mississippi, seventy-five miles from Memphis, Tennessee. A beautiful campus and buildings in a picturesque setting.

Special advantages in piano, pipe organ, violin, voice culture, expression, art. Home economics and commercial subjects, such as bookkeeping, stenography, and secretarial studies, given without extra charge.

Cost to students surprisingly low. Write for catalogue and booklet of campus views.

CHARTER A BUS

A crowd of fans drove 40 miles
To see a football battle
But then it took two hours to park
In all that jam and rattle;
You should have heard them cuss.
The chances are they never thought
Of chartering a bus.

Note: When a crowd of people are going to the same place at the same time, the simplest way is to charter a Tri-State Coach. Lots of fun—a quick, safe trip . . . no parking worries . . . and not expensive.
